
Dr. Katrina Srigley

History Department, Nipissing University
100 College Drive, Box 5002
North Bay, Ontario P1B 8L7

Phone: (work) 705 474-3450 ext. 4503
(home) 705 476-2055
Email: katrinas@nipissingu.ca

Education

- 1999-2005 University of Toronto
Ph.D. History
- Dissertation Title: “Working Lives and Simple Pleasures: Single, Working Women in a Depression-Era City, 1929-1939.”
- Supervisor: Carolyn Strange
Areas of Specialization: Oral History, Canadian History, Women’s and Gender History, Race and Ethnicity, Immigration
- Minor Field Supervisors: Cecilia Morgan, Michael Wayne
- 1997-1998 University of Toronto
M.A. History
- 1996-1997 Ontario Institute for Studies in Education – University of Toronto
B.Ed. History and Individual and Society
- 1992-1996 University of Western Ontario
B.A.Hons. History and Anthropology

Languages English, German, French (reading)

Academic Positions

- 2005- present Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of History, Nipissing University
- 2004-2005 Instructor, Department of History, University of Toronto

Awards

2005	SSHRC – Aid to Small University’s Grant	$6000
2003-2004	University of Toronto Foundation Award	$ 600
	John Beattie Research Fellowship	$ 600
	LAWCHA Travel Fellowship	$ 250 (US)
	University of Toronto Fellowship	$18,100
2002- 2005	Junior Fellowship, The Centre for Criminology, University of Toronto
2002-2003	Margaret S. McCullough Fellowship in Canadian Historical Research	$ 4,827
	University of Toronto Fellowship	$18,100
2001-2002	Ontario Graduate Fellowship	$15,000
2000-2001	University of Toronto Fellowship	$10,800
1999-2000	University of Toronto Fellowship	$10,800
1998-1999	University of Toronto Fellowship	$ 3,600

Publications

Refereed

Articles

Katrina Srigley, “Clothing Stories: Consumption, Identity, and Desire in Depression-era Toronto,” Journal of Women’s History, forthcoming.

Katrina Srigley, “In Case You Hadn’t Noticed!”: Race, Ethnicity and Women’s Wage-earning in a Depression-Era City, Labour/Le Travail, 55(Spring 2005), 69-105.

Non-Refereed

Katrina Srigley, Lisa M. Todd and Jeffrey D. Bowersox, Gendering Modern German History. Rewritings of the Mainstream (19th-20th Century), Conference Report, German History, 21,4(2003), 533-540.

Book Review, Joan Sangster, Regulating Girls and Women: Sexuality, Family, and the Law in Ontario, 1920-1960, (Toronto: Oxford University Press, 2001), Labour/Le Travail, 51(Spring 2003), 284-286.

Book Review, Bruce Nelson, Divided We Stand: American Workers and the Struggle for Black Equality (Princeton and Oxford: Princeton University Press, 2001), Labour/Le Travail, 50(Fall 2002), 334-336.

Refereed Paper Presentations

Invited Conferences

Sept. 2005 “Limited Desires: working-women, consumerism, and sexuality in the Depression,” Labouring Feminism and Feminist Working Class History in North America and Beyond, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario

Conferences

May 2004 “Living ‘the family’ ideal?: three Toronto families during the Great Depression,” Feminism and the Making of Canada: Historical Reflections, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec

April 2004 “Safe Houses and Dangerous Ravines: Crime and Respectability in Toronto the Good,” New Directions in Crime, Law and Justice, The Canadian Society of Criminology Annual Conference, York University, Toronto, Ontario

Oct. 2003 “‘In case you hadn’t noticed!’ gender difference and acceptable employment during the Great Depression in Toronto,” North American Labour Studies Conference, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan

May 2002 “Help Wanted – Single Women and the Boundaries of Employment During the Great Depression in Toronto, 1929-1939,” Canadian Historical Association Conference, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario

May 2001 “The Enduring Family: Employed Women, Unemployed Men and Memories of The Great Depression in Toronto,” Canadian Historical Association Conference, Laval University, Quebec City, Quebec

March 2000 “Constructions of Femininity and the Right-to-Work Controversy

During the Great Depression in Toronto, 1929-1939," Institute for Research and Education on Women and Gender Graduate Student Conference, State University of New York, Buffalo, New York

Paper Presentations and Lectures

- June 2005 "Oral History-Methodology and Practice," Guest Lecturer, Historiography, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario
- March 2004 "Dimensions of (Non) Citizenship: World War II and the Cold War," Guest Lecturer, The Dynamics of Gender in Canadian History, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario
- April 2003 "Reflections on the Gendering Modern German History Conference," Gender and National Academic Cultures in International and Interdisciplinary Comparison, Graduate Student Workshop in Gender Studies, The Munk Centre for International Studies, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario
- Oct. 2002 "Toronto Women Workers and the Great Depression," Guest Lecturer, Oral History: Theory, Methods, Practice, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario
- April 2002 "Do You Remember 1930's Toronto?" Senior Activity Series, Central Park Lodge, Toronto, Ontario
- Oct. 1999 "'You Just Had to Fight That's All': Wage-Earning Women During the Great Depression in Toronto," Guest Lecturer, Living and Learning in Retirement Lecture Series - York University, Toronto, Ontario
- Nov. 1998 "'You Just Had to Fight That's All' the right-to-work controversy and wage-earning women's perspectives during the Depression in Toronto," The Discussion Group for the History of Women and Gender, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario

Teaching Experience

- Fall 2005 Assistant Professor Canada in the 20th Century, 3196, lecture course (50 students), Nipissing University
- Ontario History*, 3274, lecture course

		(50 students), Nipissing University
		Oral History , 4325, seminar (18 students), Nipissing University
Winter 2005	Instructor	Immigrants and Race Relations in Canada , C45SHIS, lecture course (45 students), University of Toronto
Summer 2004	Instructor	Dynamics of Gender in Canadian History , 363FHIS, lecture course (50 students), University of Toronto
Winter 2004	Teaching Assistant	Crime and Society in Canadian History , WDW310HIS, lecture course (50 students): responsible for running all tutorials and completing all marking, University of Toronto
Winter 2003	Teaching Assistant	Crime and Society in Canadian History , WDW310HIS, lecture course (50 students): responsible for running all tutorials and completing all marking, University of Toronto
Fall 2002	Teaching Assistant	Slavery and the American South , 393FHIS, lecture course (50 students): responsible for all marking, University of Toronto
2001-2002	Teaching Assistant	American History, 1608-1980 , 271Y, survey course (250 students): responsible for running all tutorials and completing all marking for 5 tutorial groups (75 students), University of Toronto
2000-2001	Teaching Assistant	American History, 1608-1980 , 271Y, survey course (250 students): responsible for running all tutorials and completing all marking for 5 tutorial groups (75 students),

		University of Toronto
1999-2000	Teaching Assistant	American History, 1608-1980, 271Y , survey course (250 students): responsible for running all tutorials and completing all marking for 5 tutorial groups (75 students), University of Toronto

Other Teaching Experience

Summer 2001	Secondary School Teacher	English OAC , (45 students): responsible for course design, teaching, and marking, York Region Board of Education
Summer 2000	Secondary School Teacher	English OAC , (45 students): responsible for course design, teaching, and marking, York Region Board of Education
Summer 1999	Secondary School Teacher	English OAC , (45 students): responsible for course design, teaching, and marking, York Region Board of Education
1996-1999	Occasional Teacher	History, English, Math : Toronto District School Board

Selected Research Positions

Jan.-Feb. 2004	Assistant to Professor Ron Pruessen: conducted data analysis and compilation.
May 1999	Assistant to Professor Carolyn Strange: conducted a participant observation study of the visitor center in Port Arthur, Tasmania. Acknowledged in: "From Place of Misery to Lottery of Life: Interpreting Port Arthur's Past," Open Museum Journal , Volume 2, August 2000.

- Oct.-Dec. 1997 Assistant to Professor Richard Helmstadter: conducted Internet based data analysis and compilation.
- 1996 -1997 Researcher OISE: designed, along with four other colleagues, a resource list for teachers at the secondary school level, which provided information about multi-media resources dealing with topics like racism, sexual abuse, homophobia and sexism.

Professional Experience/University Service

- Sept 2005-present Chair
Community Outreach Committee, Institute for Community Studies and Oral History, Nipissing University
- June 2004-present Ontario Regional Representative
Canadian Committee on Women's History
- April 2003 Workshop Coordinator
Gender and National Academic Cultures in International and Interdisciplinary Comparison, Graduate Student Workshop in Gender Studies, The Munk Centre for International Studies, University of Toronto
- February 2003 Member
Graduate Student Committee, Canadian History Tenure Track Search, Department of History, University of Toronto
- 2001-present Member
Toronto Labour Studies Group
- 2000-2002 Coordinator
The Discussion Group for the History of Women and Gender, University of Toronto
- 2000-2001 Steward
CUPE 3902

Professional Affiliations

- 2004-present Canadian Committee on Women's History
- 2003-present Labour and Working-Class History Association (LAWCHA)

2001-present	Canadian Committee on Labour History
1999-present	Canadian Historical Association
1998-2005	Ontario College of Teachers